GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED:

On Friday, August 26, 2011 at approximately 2243 hours, members of the First District Police responded to the area of the 1300 block of Emerald Street NE, Washington, D.C., for the report of a shooting. Upon arrival, the officers found the victim lying unconscious on the step in front of 1317 Emerald Street NE, suffering from an apparent gunshot wound.

The victim was transported to MedStar, Washington Hospital Center where he was treated, but succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced dead at 11:24 p.m. by Dr. Shifflett.

Your affiant began an investigation and several witnesses were interviewed. W-1 stated that it was involved in a romantic relationship with defendant since October of 2010. W-1 stated that it had recently ended the relationship with defendant because the defendant had threatened to kill her on August 22, 2011. On August 26, 2011, W-1 stated IT received text messages from the defendant regarding some personal belongings that the defendant had left at W-1's residence. W-1 stated that it dropped off the defendant's belongings and notified him via text message of the location where the items were left. According to W-1, the defendant became upset about the location where his belongings were left, claiming that someone had tampered with his belongings and demanding that W-1 pay for items that the defendant alleged were missing. W-1 stated that throughout the day she had been receiving from the defendant harassing, threatening, and intimidating text messages and phone calls about payment for the items that the defendant was claiming had either been tampered with or were missing. At the end of the work day W-1 stated the decedent responded to W-1's job and the decedent and W-1 drove home together. While W-1 was at home, it received phone calls and text messages from the defendant in which the defendant stated that he would be coming over to its residence. W-1 told the decedent and W-2 that the defendant had said that he would be there at 10:00 pm on August 26, 2011.

At approximately 2240 hours W-1, who was inside its residence, heard W-2 state that the defendant was outside. W-1 responded to the front of its residence and while out front IT observed the defendant and ran back into its residence to call 911, telling the decedent that the defendant was out front. The decedent got up from his chair and went to the front of the residence. W-1 obtained the house phone and went to the front door and observed W-2, the decedent and the defendant. While W-1 was on the phone with 911, W-1 observed the defendant shoot the decedent with a handgun that was being held in his right hand. After the defendant shot the decedent, W-1 observed the defendant walk off towards the same alley that he had come from next to 1300 Emerald Street N.E.

The initial MPD officer on the scene interviewed W-1. During this interview W-1 emailed the officers a picture of the defendant and identified him as the shooter by name and location and provided information as to where he was currently living. W-1 was subsequently shown by police a single photo from MPD's Colombo data base and identified him as the individual who had shot the decedent, further identifying him by the name of Brandon Andrews; the photograph was in fact that of Brandon Medell Andrew, adult black male, DOB 09/21/1981, [REDACTED] PDID # 530908.

W-2 was also interviewed by investigating MPD detectives. It stated that it and its family, to include the decedent, was home tonight and was sitting on a bench on the front porch area. W-2 stated that W-1 walked out the front door of the residence and stated something to the effect that "he's coming over" or "he's in the area," referring to Brandon Andrews, the ex-boyfriend of the decedent. W-2 stated that the decedent went back into the house, then returned back outside and continued to stand there. W-2 stated that a short time later it observed a male subject who it knows as Brandon Andrews, the ex-boyfriend of the decedent, walk to the middle of the street and raise his hand, which was holding something wrapped in white, in the direction of the decedent; it then heard two gunshots. W-2 stated that it saw the decedent fall to the ground, and W-2 attempted to provide assistance to the decedent. W-2 stated that it did not see which way the defendant left the scene.

W-2 stated that it has known the defendant for about eight months and that the defendant has been in its home one time during that time. W-2 stated that the defendant drives W-1's car and that it has seen the defendant in that car on several occasions over the course of the past eight months. W-2 was shown a single photograph from MPD's Colombo Data Base and stated that the person depicted in the photo was the same person it had seen standing in the middle of the street with his hand extended in the direction of the decedent at the same time it heard two gunshots. The person in the photograph that was shown to W-2 was Brandon Medell Andrew, adult black male, DOB 09/21/1981, [REDACTED] PDID # 530908.

Based on the above facts and circumstances your affiant respectfully requests that a D.C. Superior Court Judge issue an arrest warrant for Brandon Medell Andrews, AKA Brandon Corley, charging him with the murder of the decedent, Leonard Bigelow.
